GOODS

Prices exclude GST (Goods & Services Tax).

Minimum Order Value of $300.00 applies.

Saint-Gobain endeavours to provide an ex-stock service subject to conditions.

Stock outs do occur from time to time due to fluctuations in demand, varying manufacturing techniques and lead times.

Orders can be supplied by air bag at additional charge.

Prices are based on Pack Quantities. Please order in Pack Quantities and multiples thereof.

Saint-Gobain and its authorised distributors reserve the right to supply in whole pack quantities only, and where an order is less than a whole pack quantity or multiple thereof, increase the order to the next whole pack quantity and charge accordingly, otherwise a surcharge may be applicable on broken packs.

For items marked made to order, please contact Customer Service for price, availability and minimum order quantity.

Full terms and conditions are available on page 115.

REVISIONS

This price list supersedes all previous price lists for Thin Wheels, Coated Abrasives, Wire Brushes, Bonded Products, Diamond Products, Construction Products, Tapes, Super Abrasives, and Safety Products.

Saint-Gobain's continuous improvement program means the range of products offered is continually undergoing changes due to new design, research, development and review. We therefore welcome your inquiry for any products which do not appear in this publication.

We reserve the right to alter design, specification, pack quantity, price or discontinue any product without notice.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Definitions

"Company" means Saint-Gobain Abrasives Pty Ltd (ACN 068 931 420) its subsidiaries and assigns of 60 Hume Highway, Somerton, VICTORIA 3062 Australia.

"Confidential Information" includes information which:

(a) is disclosed to the Customer in connection with the Terms and Conditions at any time;

(b) is prepared or produced under or in connection with the Terms and Conditions at any time;

(c) relates to the Company's business, assets or affairs; or

(d) relates to the subject matter of, the terms of and/or any transactions contemplated by the Terms and Conditions, whether or not such information or documentation is reduced to a tangible form or marked in writing as "confidential", and howsoever the Customer receives that information.

"Consequential Loss" includes any loss of profit (including anticipated profit), loss of benefit (including anticipated benefit), loss of revenue, loss of business, loss of goodwill, loss of opportunity, loss of savings (including anticipated savings), loss of reputation, loss of use and/or loss or corruption of data, whether under statute, contract, equity, tort (including negligence), indemnity or otherwise.

"Customer" means the person or persons identified as the Customer on the Commercial Credit Application Form or in the absence thereof the party placing the Order with or purchasing Products from the Company.

"Order" means an offer by a Customer to purchase Products from the Company.

"Products" includes any goods or services or combination of both ordered by the Customer from the Company or supplied by the Company on the Order of the Customer.

"Made to Order" or "MTO" includes any Product that has been specially ordered for a Customer (whether locally or from overseas) or which is specially manufactured for the Customer or is not a stocked item.

"PPS Act" means the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) and its associated Regulations as varied from time to time.

"PPSR" refers to the Personal Property Securities Register established under the PPS Act.

"Rented Pallet" means pallets owned by independent companies that rent pallets including Chep and Loscam.

"Terms and Conditions" means these Terms and Conditions or the current Terms and Conditions as varied and applicable from time to time.

"Writing" includes fax, email and SMS.

1. Sale Terms

1.1 The current Terms and Conditions applicable from time to time shall apply to all agreements between the Company and the Customer for the purchase of the Products, including all Orders or other sales, and will prevail over all prior conditions previously agreed between the parties in relation to the purchase of the Products.

1.2 The Terms and Conditions of Trade may be varied from time to time by the Company without notice and the Terms and Conditions of Trade current at the time of placing any specific order or part of an order shall apply to such Orders.

1.3 The Company may, but shall not be required nor responsible to notify the Customer of the existence or content of any variations of the Terms and Conditions of Trade.

2. Order and Acceptance

2.1 Any Order submitted to the Company by a Customer shall be deemed to be made pursuant to, and will incorporate and be subject to, the terms of the Terms and Conditions. To the extent there is any inconsistency, ambiguity or discrepancy between any Order and the Terms and Conditions, the Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

2.2 Any Order placed or made by the Customer for the purchase of the Products shall be an irrevocable offer and shall constitute an unqualified acceptance by the Customer of the Terms and Conditions.

2.3 The Company may accept any Order in whole or in part. Accepted Orders may not be varied or cancelled by the Customer without the Company's written consent and (subject to the conditions set out herein, and to the maximum extent permitted by law) there is no right of return and where consent is provided may be subject to administrative charges. An acceptance by the Company may be oral or in writing at the Company's discretion.

3. Price

3.1 The price of the Products shall be as agreed in writing between the parties or otherwise the Company's published price or where there is no agreed price or published price such amount as indicated on invoices provided by the Company to the Customer regarding Products ordered. Prior to acceptance of an Order, the Company may change its published prices at any time without notice.

3.2 Products ordered are quoted on the basis of delivery to the Customer's address. For Orders less than $300 excluding GST a surcharge of $30 excluding GST will apply and the Company may charge in addition to the price of the Products the recovery rate for freight and handling at rates dependent on distance and volume of Products supplied. The rates are subject to change at any time without notice.

4. Credit granting

4.1 The Company may accept an Order and allow credit for part or all of its value or may accept an Order and require pre-payment as a condition of delivery. Credit approval once granted may be withdrawn at any time at the Company's absolute discretion. Where credit approval has not been granted, or is withdrawn, payment of all Products supplied is required before delivery. Where credit has been approved for the Customer, all invoices issued by the Company are due and payable no later than thirty (30) days following the end of the month in which a statement is sent to the Customer (or such other date for payment as the Customer and the Company may agree in writing).

5. Credit Policy and Default

5.1 The Company may charge interest on all amounts not paid by the Customer under the Terms and Conditions within the term for payment at a rate of 2% per calendar month calculated from the due date and accruing monthly therefrom until the date of payment.

If the Customer defaults in payment of any invoice when due and payable under the Terms and Conditions, the Customer shall indemnify the Company from and against all expenses, costs and disbursements suffered or incurred by the Company in pursuing the debt including all reasonably charged legal costs on a "solicitor and own client" basis and the fees charged to the Company by any mercantile agency. Without limiting any other right or entitlement of the Company, if the Customer fails to make any payment under the Terms and Conditions by the due date, the Company may at its sole discretion:

- a. cancel any provision of credit to the Customer;
- b. reverse any rebates and discounts allowed;
- c. require cash pre-payment for any further Products ordered;
- d. provide to a credit reporting agency details of the payment default;
- e. engage debt collection services and/or commence legal proceedings against the Customer (and any guarantors) for all outstanding amounts, interest and costs;
- f. recover possession of the Products pursuant to the retention of title preserved under Clause 9;
- g. decline to supply Products to the Customer and terminate any other agreement with the Customer; and
- h. exercise any other rights at law.

5.2 A certificate of debt signed by a representative of the Company shall be prima facie evidence of money owing by the Customer to the Company at that time.

5.3 If the Customer fails to make any payment payable pursuant to the Terms and Conditions within the payment terms or breaches any of the warranties or obligations then the Customer shall be in Default.

6. Taxes

6.1 The Company reserves the right, upon production of a tax invoice, to recover from the Customer any Goods and Services Tax (GST) payable in respect of supply of Products. Unless expressly included all amounts expressed or described in any agreement, price list or in invoices are GST exclusive.

7. Delivery

7.1 Delivery of the Products shall be deemed to have taken place when:

- a. the Customer takes possession of the Products at the Company's address if the Products are collected; or
- b. the Products are delivered at the Customer's nominated address

(in the event that the Products are delivered by the Company or the Company's nominated carrier); or

c. the Customer's nominated carrier takes possession of the Products in which event the carrier shall be deemed to be the Customer's agent.

7.2 The Company's nominated address shall be the address specified in the Commercial Account Application Form or agreed in writing by the Company.

7.3 Delivery of Products may not be refused by the Customer after an Order has been accepted by the Company. Where prices are stated as inclusive of delivery, delivery is to the delivery point accepted by the Company.

7.4 The Customer shall make all arrangements necessary to accept delivery of the Products whenever they are tendered for delivery. In the event that the Customer is unable or unwilling to accept delivery of the Products as arranged, then the Company shall be entitled to charge the Customer for all reasonable costs for the return and redelivery.

7.5 At the Company's sole discretion the costs of delivery may be claimed from the Customer in addition to the Price or be applied to the Customer's credit account as a charge.

7.6 Delivery of Products to a third party or place nominated in any way by the Customer is deemed to be delivery to the Customer pursuant to the Terms and Conditions.

7.7 Notwithstanding any specification to the contrary in the Customer's Order the failure of the Company to deliver by a time specified by the Customer shall not entitle the Customer to treat that contract as breached or repudiated.

7.8 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall not be liable for any loss, cost, damage or expense arising from, or in connection with, any failure by the Company to deliver the Products at a specified time, promptly or at all and the failure of the Company to deliver at a specific time, promptly or at all shall not entitle either party to treat the Terms and Conditions as in breach or repudiated.

8. Passing of Risk

8.1 The risk (but not title) in respect of Products sold passes to the Customer immediately upon delivery of the Products to the Customer in accordance with clause 7. Once risk in the Products passes, the Customer will be solely responsible for the Products.

This clause will survive termination of the Terms and Conditions.

9. Retention of Title to the Products Pending Payment

9.1 Orders are accepted on condition that ownership of the Products shall remain with the Company and shall not pass to the Customer until the Company has received in full (cash or cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to the Company from the Customer on any account or pursuant to these Terms and Conditions of Trade.

9.2 Until ownership of the Products has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall keep the Products in question as fiduciary agent and bailee for and on behalf of the Company, and must not do anything which seeks to create an encumbrance, lien, charge or other interest on or over the Products.

9.3 This clause 9 will survive termination of the Terms and Conditions.

10. Personal Property Securities

10.1 In this section words in italic shall have the meaning and definitions set out in the PPS Act.

10.2 The Customer acknowledges that by virtue of the Terms and Conditions the Company has a security interest in the Products for the purposes of the PPS Act and the proceeds of sale of such Products and to the extent applicable the PPS Act applies to any agreement pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of Trade.

10.3 The Customer acknowledges that the Company may do anything reasonably necessary, including but not limited to registering any security interest which the Company has over the Products or the purchase money security interest (PMSI) in the Products on the PPSR in order to perfect the security interest and comply with the requirement of the PPS Act. The Customer agrees to do all things reasonably necessary to assist the Company to undertake the matters set out above. The Customer waives pursuant to section

157(3)(b) of the PPS Act the right to receive notice of a verification statement in relation to any registration on the PPSR.

10.4 The Customer and the Company agree that, pursuant to section 115 of the PPS Act, the following provisions in the PPS Act do not apply in relation to a security interest in the Products to the extent, if any, mentioned:

- a. section 123 (right to seize collateral);
- b. section 125 (obligation to dispose of or retain collateral) in that the Company may extend the time for delay as the Company considers appropriate;
- c. section 126 (apparent possession);
- d. section 129 (disposal by purchase);
- e. section 130 (notice of disposal), to the extent that it requires the secured party to give a notice to the grantor before disposal;
- f. subsection 132(4) (statement of account if no disposal);
- g. subsection 134(1) (retention of collateral);
- h. section 135 (notice of retention);
- i. section 142 (redemption of collateral);
- j. section 143 (reinstatement of security agreement);

10.5 Pursuant to section 275(6) of the PPS Act, the Customer and Company agree that neither will disclose to any interested person information pertaining to the Company's security interest as set out in section 275(1).

10.6 The Customer undertakes:

a. promptly to do all things including signing any further documents and providing any further information which the Company may reasonably require to enable it to perfect and maintain the perfection of its security interest or PMSI (including by registration of a financing statement or financing change statement on the PPSR and the Customer warrants that any such information the Customer provides will be complete, accurate and up-to-date in all respects);

b. it will give the Company not less than 14 days prior notice of any proposed change in the Customer's name or any other change in the Customer's details (including but not limited to, changes in its address, facsimile number or trading name).

11. Made to Order "MTO"

11.1 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any MTO Products shall not in any case be eligible for return.

11.2 Orders placed for MTO Products are to be supplied as per quantities run at time of production that may vary by up to 10% of the total quantity in the Order.

11.3 Where MTO Products are held in inventory specifically for the Customer and the Customer discontinues normal, regular purchasing of these MTO Products from the Company, then the Customer undertakes to buy at the current purchase price all remaining inventory of these MTO Products within 10 days of receiving notification under these terms from the Company.

12. Pallets

12.1 Unless otherwise agreed to in writing all pallets on which Products are delivered remain the property of the Company and must be returned to the Company at the Customer's expense in good order and condition (and, in any event, in the order and condition in which the pallets were given to the Customer) to the factory or store of the Company from which they were delivered.

Pallets will be deemed to be in the Customer's possession until received at such factory or store. Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Customer bears all risks and costs associated with the pallets until they have been returned to the Company, and the Customer agrees to replace the pallets with pallets of a similar type and quality or reimburse the costs thereof in respect of pallets that are not returned in good order and condition (and, in any event, in the order and condition in which the pallets were given to the Customer) to the Company within one month of delivery of the Products.

12.2 Where Products are delivered on a Rented Pallet, the Customer must either replace the equivalent amount of Rented Pallets with the transport company delivering the Products or transfer the Rented Pallets through a valid account of the Rented Pallet company. Any Rented Pallets not replaced or transferred shall be invoiced at current replacement cost to the Customer.

13. Claims and Returns

13.1 The Customer will inspect and check all Products received and within 7 days of receipt notify the Company in writing of any shortage in quantity, defect, incorrect specification, damage or Products not in accordance with the Customer's Order (Defect or Defective). The Customer is responsible for checking that Products comply with those Ordered prior to use. Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, after use or expiry of the time stated herein, the Product shall be deemed to be free from any Defect at delivery.

13.2 The Customer agrees that it will not return any of the Products without first informing the Company so that a Returns Material Authorisation (RMA) number may be issued by the Company for valid returns. Returned Products must be unmarked, in a saleable condition and must include the original packaging. Part pack quantities will not be accepted.

13.3 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, no credit or replacement will be given unless and until Products so returned have been verified as being valid for return by the Company, are Defective and are returned with a valid RMA.

The Company reserves the right to recover its costs where the returned Products prove not to be valid for return or are not Defective. Returned Products must be returned to the factory or store of the Company from which they were delivered. All freight, handling and other charges in relation to returning Products (other than Products defective or not ordered) are the responsibility of the Customer.

13.4 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Company's sole liability arising from, or in connection with, any Defective Products will be limited to the performance of its obligations under clause 13.3. This clause 13.4 will survive the termination of the Terms and Conditions.

14. Product use

14.1 The Customer acknowledges that the Products have been designed for specific purposes and are to be used with equipment and machines designed to function with those Products.

14.2 The Customer hereby waives and disclaims any right to rescind or cancel the Terms and Conditions or to seek damages or to claim restitution arising out of any term, condition, representation, warranty, statement, offer or documentation (whether express or implied) made to the Customer by or on behalf of the Company (including by any servant or agent of the Company) and the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Customer buys the Products relying solely upon his or her own skill and judgement and that the Company shall not be bound by nor responsible for any term, condition, representation, warranty, statement, offer or documentation (whether express or implied), other than the express warranty given by the manufacturer, which warranty shall be personal to the Customer and shall not be transferable to any subsequent Customer.

15. Credit Card recovery of costs

15.1 A service fee sufficient to cover the Company's administration and banking cost may be charged to the Customer where payment by the Customer is made by way of a credit card.

16. Returned Cheques

16.1 An administration fee of $55 including GST plus all associated bank charges may be applied to any cheque payment returned unpaid by the bank for whatever reason. This fee may increase without notice to cover the Company's expenses and cost.

17. Disputed Charges

17.1 If the Customer objects to any invoiced item, the Customer may withhold payment of the disputed amount, but only if on or before payment or the due date for payment (whichever first occurs), the undisputed amount of the invoice is paid in full and notice in writing of the dispute is given to the Company, setting out the details of the amount disputed, the reasons for the dispute, and the basis for calculating the disputed amount. The Company will investigate all disputes. If the amount is found to be payable (in whole or in part) then the Customer must pay the due amount within 7 days of receiving notice thereof from the Company and the basis of the decision.

Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, invoiced amounts that are not objected to in writing within 30 days of the invoice date will be deemed to be correctly charged and the Customer waives all claims against the Invoice.

18. Recovery

18.1 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, if any amount due by the Customer to the Company is not paid within the term for payment, the Company reserves the following rights in relation to the Products until all amounts owed by the Customer to the Company in respect of the Products and all other Products and services supplied to the Customer by the Company at any time are fully paid:

- a. legal and equitable ownership of the Products;
- b. to retake possession of the Products; and
- c. to keep or resell any of the Products repossessed.

18.2 The Customer hereby grants (or will procure) full leave and irrevocable license, and grants (or will procure) all rights of access, permissions and consents necessary, without any liability to the Company and any person authorised by the Company, to enter any premises by any means where the Products may for the time being be placed or stored for the purpose of retaking possession of the Products.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

19. Disclaimer and Limitation of Liability

19.1 Except as expressly provided in the Terms and Conditions and to the extent permitted by law, no guarantee, warranty, condition, undertaking or term, express or implied, statutory or otherwise, as to the condition, quality, performance, merchantability or fitness for purpose of any Products provided under the Terms and Conditions is given or assumed by the Company and all such guarantees, conditions, warranties and liabilities (including liability as to negligence) express or implied relating to such Products are, subject to clauses 19.2 and 19.3, hereby excluded.

19.2 The Company acknowledges and agrees that certain legislation in Australia, including the Australian Consumer Law, provides Consumers with guarantees and rights which cannot be excluded, restricted or modified or which may in certain cases only be modified or restricted to a limited extent. Nothing in the Terms and Conditions excludes, restricts or modifies, or is intended to exclude, restrict or modify, any guarantee, condition, warranty, right or liability implied by law (including any guarantee, condition, right or liability imposed under the Australian Consumer Law) which cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified.

19.3 Notwithstanding clause 19.2, if the Terms and Conditions constitutes a supply of goods to a Consumer, as defined in Australian Consumer Law or any other any applicable consumer protection legislation, then, despite any provision to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the liability of the Company in respect of a breach of a guarantee, condition or warranty implied by such legislation (other than any non-excludable implied guarantees, conditions or warranties), including liability for any Consequential Loss, which the Customer or any other entity or person may sustain or incur, will be limited, at the Company's absolute discretion, to:

i) if the breach relates to supply of Products:

- a) the provision of a refund; or
- b) replacement of the Products; or
- c) repair of the Products; or
- d) the payment to the Customer of the reasonable cost of having the Products repaired or replaced.

ii) if the breach relates to services:

- a) the provision of a refund; or
- b) re-supply of the service; or
- c) the payment to the Customer of the reasonable cost of having the service re-supplied.

19.4 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that in entering into the Terms and Conditions it has not relied in any way on the Company's representations and that it has satisfied itself as to the suitability of the Product for the Customer's purposes.

19.5 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company will not be liable to the Customer for any loss or damage (including loss of profits or any other indirect or Consequential Loss or damage) arising directly or indirectly from:

- a. any acts or omissions of the Customer or any other third party;
- b. the supply or use by the Customer of any Product; or
- c. any breach by the Company of its obligations under the Terms and Conditions; or
- d. the use by the Customer of any Product supplied to it by a third party and in connection with which any Product may be interfaced.

19.6 This clause 19 will survive termination of the Terms and Conditions.

20. Set-off

20.1 The Customer shall not be entitled to set off against or deduct from any amounts due and payable by the Customer to the Company (whether under the Terms and Conditions or otherwise) any sums owed or claimed to be owed to the Customer by the Company (whether under the Terms and Conditions or otherwise).

21. Assignment

21.1 The Customer may not assign or subcontract any contract for the purchase of Products or its obligations under the Terms and Conditions. The Company may assign or licence or subcontract all or any parts of its rights and obligations hereunder without the Customer's agreement or consent.

22. Force Majeure

22.1 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company will have no liability to the Customer in relation to any loss, cost, damage or expense caused or contributed to by the Company's failure to complete an Order or delivery or contract, either totally or partially, or perform any other obligation under the Terms and Conditions, where that failure was caused or contributed to by an event or circumstance outside of the Company's reasonable control (Force Majeure). The term Force Majeure shall include, without limitation, acts of God, fire, explosion, flood, tempest, storm, earthquake, riot, vandalism, civil disturbance, theft, crime, strike, lock-out, work stoppages, war, orders of acts of military or civil authority, national emergencies, insurrections, equipment, facilities, services, power or water shortage, accidents or breakdowns of plant, machinery, software, hardware or communication network or the inability of the Company's suppliers to supply necessary materials, and any event the same or similar to any of the preceding events, or any other matter beyond the Company's reasonable control.

23. Privacy Information

23.1 By purchasing Products from the Company, the Customer consents to the Company collecting, storing and using the Customer's information (including personal information) in accordance with the Terms and Conditions (and the Company's privacy policy, as applicable). The Company may give information to third parties about the Customer, its guarantors, directors or proprietors for the following purposes:

- a. to obtain a consumer credit report about the Customer, its guarantors, directors or proprietors;
- b. to allow the credit reporting agency to create or update credit information records containing information about the Customer, its guarantors, directors or proprietors;
- c. for registration on the PPSR or other public records or registers;
- d. to obtain commercial credit information about the Customer, its guarantors, directors or proprietors from a credit reporting agency; and
- e. to perform the Company's obligations, and to supply the Products to the Customer, in accordance with the Terms and Conditions).

24. Third Party Online Platforms

24.1 Despite any provision to the contrary, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

- a. the sale, supply or distribution of (or offering to sell, supply or distribute) the Products on or through third party online marketplaces or platforms (Online Platforms) may damage or reduce the Company's or the Product's brand or reputation in the market;
- b. it will not (and will ensure that any of its personnel or members will not) sell, supply or distribute (or offer to sell, supply or distribute) the Products on any Online Platforms, without the express prior written consent of the Company; and
- c. it will (and will ensure that any of its personnel or members will) immediately comply with any written direction issued to it by the Company to refrain from selling, supplying or distributing (or offering to sell, supply or distribute) the Products on any Online Platforms (or any other platform) that the Company considers may damage or reduce the Company's or the Product's brand reputation in the market.

25. Waiver of terms of agreement

25.1 The failure or indulgences by the Company to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege available to it under the Terms and Conditions will not operate as a waiver thereof or preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right or power and the Company shall be entitled to require strict compliance at all times.

26. Proper Law

26.1 The Terms and Conditions are governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Victoria, Australia.

26.2 The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of Victoria and if the Magistrates Court has jurisdiction the parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Magistrates Court closest to the Company's place of business.

26.3 Any agreement formed pursuant to the Terms & Conditions of Trade shall be deemed to have been entered into at the Company's place of business.

27. Entire Agreement

27.1 This document represents the entire agreement between the parties in relation to its subject matter and may not be amended except in writing signed by each of the parties.

28. General

28.1 A party may not commence court proceedings relating to any dispute arising from, or in connection with, the Terms and Conditions (Dispute) without first discussing the Dispute with a senior representative of the other party to seek (in good faith) to resolve the Dispute (unless that party is seeking urgent interlocutory relief, or the Dispute relates to compliance with this clause).

28.2 The Customer will (and will ensure its personnel) keep confidential, and not use or permit any unauthorised use of, any of the Company's Confidential Information without the Company's prior written consent, except where the disclosure is required by law.

28.3 The Company may serve any notice or Court document on the Customer by hand or by forwarding it by post to the address of the Customer last known to the Company, or where a fax number or an email address has been supplied by the Customer, by sending it to that number or address. Such notices shall be deemed to be given:

- a. where delivered by hand, on the day of delivery;
- b. where sent by post, two (2) business days after the day of posting; and
- c. where sent by facsimile or email on the day of dispatch, provided that a clear transmission report is obtained.

28.4 If any term of the Terms and Conditions shall be invalid, void, illegal or unenforceable, they shall be severed from the Terms and Conditions and the remaining provisions shall not be affected, prejudiced or impaired by such severance.

28.5 All amounts quoted or invoiced are in Australian dollars. Payments remitted in foreign currency must include all related bank charges and currency conversion costs.

28.6 The Company reserves the right to review these the Terms and Conditions at any time. If following any such review there is to be a change in the Terms and Conditions, that change will take effect from the date on which the Company notifies the Customer of that change.

28.7 In the event that the Customer sells or otherwise disposes of its business (or any part thereof), the Customer shall be responsible to immediately notify the Company in writing of such sale to enable the account to be closed. If the Customer fails to so notify then the Customer and its guarantors shall be jointly and severally liable with the third party acquiring the business (or part thereof) to the Company for the payment of Products subsequently sold or supplied to the third party and other charges on the Customer's account before the Company received such notice as if the Customer had ordered the Products itself.

28.8 The Terms and Conditions may be executed in any number of counterparts that together will form one instrument.

28.9 Each party acknowledges and agrees that it has had an opportunity to read the Terms and Conditions, it agrees to its terms and, prior to executing it, it has been provided with the opportunity to seek independent legal advice about its terms.

28.10 The Terms and Conditions are not intended to create a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship between the parties. Nothing in the Terms and Conditions gives a party authority to bind any other party in any way.

28.11 Each party must promptly do all things and execute all further instruments necessary to give full force and effect to the Terms and Conditions and their obligations under it.

28.12 Except as provided in the Terms and Conditions, a party may give, attach conditions to or withhold any consent or approval under the Terms and Conditions in its sole and absolute discretion. A party is not obliged to give reasons for giving or withholding its consent or approval or for giving its consent or approval subject to conditions.

28.13 Except as provided in the Terms and Conditions or permitted by law, the powers, rights and remedies of a party under the Terms and Conditions are cumulative and in addition to any other powers, rights and remedies the party may have.

LEGACY CODE VS PART NUMBER

We are pleased to advise our transition from old Legacy code to Part Number is complete.

What does this mean?

It means all our products have been transitioned from the Legacy codes over to Part Numbers.

What does this mean to me?

We ask you to familiarise yourself with the difference between Legacy Code and Part Numbers. Here are what the Part Numbers look like.

	PART NUMBER	PACK QTY	BARCODE
125 x 1.0 x 22.23mm A46T MEGA INOX	66252919991	100	9314188004271

But why?

Seamless numbering provides a better service now and in the future for all our customers.

How will you help me with the transition?

Of course we will assist anyone, so give us a call if you are still unsure how this will affect your business.

Following pages are our tables to assist you with any immediate queries.
